

Dhaka, Jan 07:

Bangladesh Football Federation (BFF) president Kazi Salahuddin has been appointed as a member of FIFA's Technical and Development Committee.

A letter from the FIFA on Thursday confirmed the appointment of the former national football captain turned football chief, who is also a member of the AFC Audit Committee.

The decision was taken at a meeting of the FIFA executive committee on December 3 on Robben Island, South Africa.

The BFF president is expected to join the committee's next meeting in Zurich on February 8.
